About TheSmokies.com LLC

Last year, TheSmokies.com, a BBB accredited business, brought in 4 million page views. We fund our site through ad revenue so that it remains free to the general public. The majority of in-content ads you see on our website are content ads through our affiliate partner, Raptive. However, we also have special spots reserved for local advertisers who wish to promote their businesses, restaurants and attractions. Those opportunities, along with current pricing, are listed in this rate card.

We are the largest family-owned website in the Smokies

With locally-grown talent

The secret behind our success is our locally-grown dream team of passionate Smokies lovers who are all natives and/or long-time locals. We know what visitors in the Smokies want to see. Every article and piece of content on our site was written and refined in response to current social media discussions and Google Trends. This is why we've attracted over 4 million views to TheSmokies.com in the past year and grew our social media following to over 182,500 social media followers (Facebook Page, Facebook Group, Instagram & TikTok).
